

Open Library Economics ejournals - International Consortium - Year 2027

Please note: Please do not send us this form if you do not wish to become a member of the consortium.

1. Your institution

Name of the institution:

Address:

Contact person:

E-Mail Address¹:

Number of FTEs (used to calculate the financial contribution):

- ☐ under 5.000
- ☐ 5.000-10.000
- ☐ more than 10.000
- ☐ none of the tiers fits to my institution. My institution chooses the following tier / contributes the following sum to the consortial funding:

2. Participation in the consortium

Please tick the following box, if your institution wishes to support the consortium in the year 2027.

☐ Yes, binding support

By sending in your binding support declaration, you accept the conditions for this consortium. You can find the relevant information in the product matrix (see attachment). The binding support obliges your institution to pay the sum of the tier that applies to your institution.

With the financial contribution, the participating institution does not get a direct return service. With your contribution, you support the financing of a bundle of Diamond Open Access Journals, in order to make the thus co-financed publications freely available and re-usable worldwide under the CC-BY 4.0 Licence.

¹ Please provide a central email address, if possible (e.g., media@university.ca)

The following journals are part of the bundle in 2026:

1. German Journal of Agricultural Economics (GJAE)
2. European Journal of Economics and Economic Policies (EJEEP)
3. Junior Management Science (JUMS)
4. Vierteljahreshefte zur Arbeits- und Wirtschaftsforschung (VAW)
5. Journal of Service Management Research (SMR)
6. Zeitschrift für Wirtschaftspolitik (ZfW)

Please tick the following boxes if your institution would like to be mentioned as a supporter for Diamond Open Access of Open Library Economics (e.g. on our website Open Library Economics).

4. Data protection

For the organisation of this pledging round and the administration of your membership in the consortium we need your contact data, especially for the contractual and billing procedure.

You can find the information on data protection as well as the contact details of the data protection officer of ZBW and information on your rights on our website: <https://www.zbw.eu/en/data-protection> .

ZBW uses the Electronic Ressource Management System LAS:eR to organize consortia. ZBW also administrates data of the participating institutions and the respective contact persons in LAS:eR. The system LAS:eR is operated by

Hochschulbibliothekszentrum of the state North Rhine-Westfalia (HBZ)
Jülicher Straße 6
50674 Köln

ZBW has a data processing contract with the HBZ.

Consent:

- ☐ I have read the data protection information. I agree to the processing of my personal data by ZBW in the context of the participation in the above mentioned consortium and to the transfer of my personal data by ZBW to HBZ for the above mentioned purposes.

You have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. When you withdraw your consent, the participation in the consortium will be terminated at the next possible date and your personal data will be deleted immediately after the termination.
